

NOW AVAILABLE:

The Autobiography and Writings of William Lindsay
1847-1932
A PIONEER'S STORY

- * An illustrative history of Wasatch County and one of its most distinguished citizens
- * A reproduction of the original manuscript is presented alongside duplicating text in easy to read type
- * Several momentous selections from William's Three Books of Rhymes
- * Numerous substantive photographs
- * Genealogical records for all of William's currently identified forebears
- * Printed on quality paper and bound in a top-grade, hard binding.

PRICE: $18.00

(Mail Orders: Include $1.75 per book for packaging and postage)

* * *

LIMITED EDITION PRINTS

These full color prints are a masterful depiction of Lindsay's Dell, near Heber City, Utah. Nestled in the heart of the beautiful Wasatch Valley, Lindsay's Dell was the family homestead established by William and Mary Mair Lindsay in the late 1800's.

There are only 200 prints in this exclusive edition. Each quality print is 26" X 37" and is signed and numbered by the artist. The original painting from which these prints were taken is the creative work of Vernon Murdock, a highly accomplished artist and illustrator, and great-grandson of William and Mary Lindsay.

PRICE: $45.00 / $40.00 with the purchase of a book.

(Mail Orders: Include $2.25 per order for packaging and postage)

Available at:
412 East 100 North
Heber City, Utah
654-1714 / 654-0574

Address Mail Orders to:
S. Brian Lindsay
161 East 700 North No. 1
Provo, Utah 84601

S. Br Lindsay
161 E 700 North No. 1
Provo, Utah 84601